

The recent actions by Sinclair Broadcast are abhorrent, and as an agency of the US Government, the FCC has the responsibility to insure that a public resource, the broadcast spectrum, is not abused for personal monetary or political gain.

Please, please, for the sake of our country, do not allow these abuses to continue. No private entity can be allowed to retain such a monopoly of public resources.